SPECTACLES FOR BLINDNESS.

Vision is justly described as the most important of our senses, and its loss is regarded as one of the greatest afflictions to which mankind is subject. It is, therefore, of paramount importance that we should carefully use our sight whilst perfect, and that when, unfortunately, the help of Spectacles is felt to be necessary, the utmost care should be taken in the selection of them.

The late eminent Oculist, Dr. Seelberg Wells, testified that he had no hesitation in stating that the haphazard plan of selecting Spectacles—employed by some Opticians—was frequently attended by serious consequences; that eyes were often permanently injured, which might, by skilled adaptation of glasses, have been preserved for years.

S. R. GROOM, Esq., F.R.C.S., Barrister-at-Law, Singapore.

Writes:—
I have used Glasses for twenty years, and have no hesitation in saying that, those supplied me by you are the best I have ever worn. I wear them with much satisfaction and comfort, and find the frames are especially convenient.

this port at noon to-day, and may be expected here on or about the 1st August.

The Superintendent of the P. & O. Co. informs us that the Company's s.s. Venetia, from Bombay, left Singapore for this port to-day, at 8 a.m.

We are informed by the Agents (Messrs.
David Sassoon, Sons & Co.) that the departure of the s.s. Japan, from Calcutta, has been postponed for a week owing to some slight accident.

The Peking correspondent of the Chinese Times writes:—A curious story, perhaps unknown to some of your readers, is concerning the visit of a former Duke to Peking, during the reign of Chien Lung.

He was warned by a Taoist bishop called Chang Tien Shih, that if he did not take the greatest precautions between two dates which he named, his palace in Peking would be burned down during that interval.

The Yü Chün Kung, (title of the Duke) upon his return home gave strict orders that during this period no fire for any purpose whatever should be introduced into his palace.

His commands were carried out with the greatest care, and the fatal period passed without the visit of a former Duke to Peking.

The N. O. Daily News says:—We regret to learn on the best authority that the story which we published somewhat doubtfully not long since, as to the King of Corea's inviting Mr. Watters, H. M.'s Consul-General, to an audience, and then, after keeping him waiting for an hour, declining to receive him, is perfectly authentic.

The King had offered Mr. Watters an audience, and the latter had replied that he had sent his uniform on, and could only come in dress clothes, and this had been accepted.

Notwithstanding which, the King's plan for refusing to receive Mr. Watters was that he was not in uniform. It was of course a determined insult to Great Britain, prompted by one of the King's foreign advisers, and we do not doubt that Sir John Walsham has already made a representation about it.
